

MCQ Set - Unusual Option Formats

Test file for option grouping and separator detection

1. Which testing level verifies individual functions?

Unit testing, Integration testing, System testing, Acceptance testing

Options are comma-separated and have no labels.

Q2) Which of these are software process models?

Waterfall; Spiral; Incremental; V-Model

Options are semicolon-separated and have no labels.

(3) What does UML stand for?

- 1) Unified Modeling Language
- 2) Universal Machine Logic
- 3) User Model Layer
- 4) Unified Method Link

4) Select the activity that happens before coding in a normal SDLC flow.

Requirements analysis Design Testing Maintenance

Options appear as plain words in a horizontal visual group without labels.

MCQ Set - Unusual Option Formats

Test file for option grouping and separator detection

Question 5. Which diagram shows interaction between objects over time?

- (i) Class diagram
- (ii) Sequence diagram
- (iii) Use case diagram
- (iv) Activity diagram

6. Which item is NOT a valid software requirement? Choose one.

- The application must let students submit answers.
- The system should be fast.
- A developer must drink coffee.
- The system must keep an audit log.

Options use bullet characters instead of A, B, C, D or numbers.

7) Identify the correct order of the following phases.

Analysis → Design → Implementation → Testing

Design → Testing → Analysis → Implementation

Implementation → Analysis → Testing → Design

Testing → Analysis → Design → Implementation

Options are separate lines but have no visible option labels.